

L I O N E S S C R E E D

I speak this creed in my life
As a beacon of light
I will uphold these truths
And be reminded of what is just and right

In moments of peril
I will not succumb
I will work with a spirit of excellence and cultivate a place of peace, faith, and light in my world

Just as I will prosper
My children and my children's children will flourish
No matter the circumstance I will overcome with pride, savvy, and exquisite courage

I will do all in my power
To value my life and others
I will uplift the weak by empowering through these truths and moral prowess

I speak this creed in my life
As a beacon of light
I will uphold these truths
And be reminded of what is just and right
